

I had been searching for my lost notebook near the edge of the woods, sure it had blown away. As I stepped through the trees, the ground suddenly gave way, and I dropped into a hidden pit. I landed with a thud and froze — the floor was wriggling with snakes. My heart pounded. I had to stay calm... and think fast.

Thinking Time

- 1) What is the meaning of the word 'thud'?
- 2) How did the character's emotions change and why?
- 3) How could the character escape this scenario?
- 4) Is the use of the word 'wriggling' effective and why?
- 5) Why did the character decide to freeze?
- 6) Summarise the events in your own words.

Word Workout
