

With the weather closing in and night about to fall, the survivors worked urgently to build a shelter and create a message visible to rescuers from above. They used branches, stones, and scraps from the wreckage to spell “HELP” in the clearing, hoping it would be spotted before the next storm rolled in — their lives depended on it.

Thinking Time

- 1) What is the meaning of the word 'survivors'?
- 2) How might the group of survivors be feeling & why?
- 3) How will this story end?
- 4) Explain why creating a shelter is so important.
- 5) What time of day was the story set in?
- 6) Summarise the events in your own words.
